Create a NYT Account and Search for Articles

1. Create a free New York Times account:
    a. Go to https://www.nytimes.com/activate-access/edu-access (this is the New York Times Online link in the library A-Z database list)

    b. Search for Mohawk Valley Community College - Utica and select the option that appears under the search box.

    c. On the next screen, there will be two links to start setting up an account. One link is for on-campus, and the other button is for those that are off-campus. Select whichever link matches your location.

    On-campus click here

    Off-campus click here

    Mohawk Valley Community College - Utica Instructions to redeem complimentary NYTimes.com subscription

    On campus click here.

    Off campus follow these steps below after you click the Go button.

    1. Navigate to your institution's sign in page.
    2. Log in with your institutional credentials.
    3. Create a NYTimes.com account using your institutional email - or use your pre-existing profile.

    Get your access now:

    Go

    d. You will be asked to enter your student email address. Make sure you enter it correctly with your username@student.mvcc.edu

    e. Set up a password and presto! You have a free New York Times account!

2. Once you have a NY Times account, you can go to their website any time and sign in to search for articles.

New York Times home page: nytimes.com

NYT webpage to filter by date range or section: nytimes.com/search